

Weld Recreation committee meeting- Thursday, May 1, 2025 6pm at Weld Free Public Library

Present: Liz Boyle, Ina Toth, Barbara Hardenbrook, Maddy Bujold, Diana Demers, Wendy Ames, Lynda Redmond
Knitting class on 3-23-25 was attended by about 9 people and $6.24 was spent, $10 donation came in.

Easter party was attended by about 80 people and children, WREC spent $185.50 (and $6.92 which was a miscellaneous purchase). WREC received $22 in donations - leftover items of playdoh were donated to the Library and erase boards, legos, slinkies and bags shall be kept for future 'give away prizes'. Julie donated $20 for leftover chocolate bunnies, 2 Lego kits & 2 dry erase.

Motion by Maddy to accept the treasurers report and donations made, seconded by Lynda and all were in favor.

Discussion ensued about keeping activities to a 2 hour limit and it was agreed upon to discuss for each activity vs an across the board vote for all activities. Designated set up and clean up people should be identified for each event so that everyone doesn't always have to be there the whole time.

Vernal Pool walk was attended by about 12 people, no donations.

Town Hall annual meeting garnered $40 in donations.

Treasurers report: $2028.94, reported specific lines items of revenue as well as what was spent.

Liz gave an Observer update, next issue will be around June 1.

Tumbledown Tackers have changed their meeting dates to the second Monday of each month from 12-3 and they'll be back at the MPR. Julie will update flyer for this and other events forthcoming.

No Fiddlers update yet, WREC still has the check for donation. Sign grant update - MMA grant was not pursued as the Weld Fire Department needed it more and couldn't have both entities vying for the grant. Sign discussion was tabled until next meeting.

New Business: Town website, Dina Walker and others will be assigned to help Carol manage.

Need Keith Cochran contact info so we can ask about using the Lemonade stand. Stand will be used for Lake and Heritage Days- some volunteers stepped up to commit to be available.

Barbara Hardenbrook brought in some backpacks that she acquired and we will discuss their use at next meeting.

Next WREC meeting at the MPRoom on June 4, 2025 at 6 pm.

Meeting adjourned at 7:10 pm
