Buying Bacon: Practical Finances for Small Business Owners
TIME: 8 AM - 10 AM
LOCATION: Calzolaio Pasta Company Main St. Wilton
Have you ever wondered why your business never turns a profit? Ever had to skip paychecks to yourself? Have you lived in fear of the IRS smiting you with an audit? If you're in business, then the answer to all of those, at one time or another, was yes! And it sorta sucks. Bob Berry, CEO of Main-Land, asked some clients about what their biggest hurdles are. A surprising number said operating their business finances. The Franklin County Chamber of Commerce, Skowhegan Savings Bank and Main-Land want to help. Because you do not need to be a spreadsheet wizard to run your small business finances. If you have a product you believe in and can sell, you can make money. Bob will be talking about the two ways a small business can successfully run their finances, turn a profit, and pay off Uncle Sam before SWAT knocks down your door. This is not accounting. Hire a good accountant. This is practical finances for small business owners. Cost is $10 and includes breakfast! Calzolaio Pasta Company Main St. Wilton. Must register through the chamber at info@franklincountymaine.org or call 778-4215 by March 22nd.
