The Farmington D....

The Farmington D...., a restaurant located at 367 Wilton Road in Farmington opened on September 19, 2018. Rachel Jackson, the owner, had the original Farmington Diner moved when Rite Aid bought the land it used to sit on. Her vision is to create the same sense of community that the original diner had, just in a different location.

Pieces from the old Farmington Diner have been placed in the Farmington D.... The stainless steel fans adorn the walls and part of the original diner counter has been placed in the Farmington D.... Diner stories that people have shared with Rachel over the years have been placed throughout the restaurant. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are served 6 days a week, closed on Tuesday. The menu includes an array of options including seafood, pasta, steaks, burgers, sandwiches, and of course, breakfast. There is also an all-you-can eat salad bar.

Lots of local, homemade items are offered. The Farmington D....'s homemade bread and rolls are made by Apple Tree Bakery of Madison, ME. The cream for the coffee and tea comes from Sandy River Dairy of Farmington. Wine from Wild Fern Winery located on the Farmington Falls Road in Farmington is served. Homemade jelly for our toast is made by Kountry Kettle, a small family-owned business in Smyrna, Maine. We just began serving burgers using a special recipe of different meats that is ground daily by Naples of Mexico, ME just for the Farmington D....

Great food, great company. That's what it is all about.
